

COVID-19 Information and protocols for the Robyn Chaplin Memorial Tournament AFC2

There are no restrictions on entering South Australia apart from those listed below.

Travelling from Victoria

Effective 7:45 pm 28 May 2021

Travellers arriving from Victoria from 7:45 pm 28 May 2021 are not permitted to enter South Australia.

Currently, there are no COVID-19 testing or quarantine restrictions for travellers arriving in South Australia from the remaining states.

Please note that information changes quickly and it is recommended you check the SA Health website for any travel restrictions.

Our Fencing venue at The Lights Community and Sports Centre has a maximum capacity of 1,000 people (excluding staff). Fencing SA expects no restrictions on the number of people in the venue at this point in time if people comply with agreed social distancing practices.

Please note that these numbers are subject to change if there is a change in the SA Directions from the Chief Commission of Police.

Travelling to SA

South Australia's borders are open to all travellers from interstate. There are no COVID-19 testing or self-quarantine restrictions for travellers arriving in South Australia from interstate.

All travellers coming to South Australia must complete the Cross Border Travel Registration form on the SA Police website prior to their travel.

Before you travel

If you are planning travel to SA, aim to complete the Cross-Border Travel Registration form at least 7 days before you leave, regardless of where your travel begins. If you are applying for essential traveller categories (when relevant), please attach relevant documents to assist with assessment and determination.

All travellers should download the mySA GOV app from Google Play or the App Store prior to travel to South Australia. COVID Safe Check-In is required at most shops and establishments in SA.

Arriving in SA

Self Check-in

Travellers will now receive an email from South Australia Police that requests that they complete a 'Self Check-in'. This will "check" them in as arriving in South Australia.

Travellers will either declare that they have arrived, or will be arriving in South Australia as per the date declared on their Cross Border Travel Registration.

The email from South Australia Police will arrive on the day you are expected to arrive in South Australia.

Arriving at Adelaide Airport

Travellers entering South Australia by plane must wear a face mask (covering mouth and nose) at all times when on the plane or present at any airport.

Travellers who arrive by plane are required to use the COVID Safe Check-In to scan a QR code specific to the Adelaide Airport immediately after their arrival. For travellers who do not have a smartphone, they must provide their relevant contact details to a person authorised or required to collect such contact details.

For travellers who do not have a smartphone, they must provide their relevant contact details to a person authorised or required to collect such contact details at each premise they enter..

Check-in is mandatory for every venue that you enter and fines apply for non-compliance. SA Police will do checks and failure to comply attracts a $1000 for yourself and another for the venue so please ensure that you comply.

Domestic travellers

Effective 12.01 am 22 May 2021.

South Australia's borders are open to all travellers from interstate.

Currently, there are no COVID-19 testing or quarantine restrictions for travellers arriving in South Australia from interstate.

Travellers entering South Australia by airplane must wear a face mask (covering mouth and nose) at all times when on the airplane or present at any airport.

All travellers coming to South Australia must first complete a Cross Border Travel Registration, irrespective of where they are travelling from.

Completing the cross-border travel registration form

If you are planning travel to SA, aim to complete the cross-border travel registration form at least 7 days before you leave, regardless of where your travel begins. If you are applying for essential traveller categories (when relevant), please attach relevant documents to assist with assessment and determination.

Travellers must complete a separate Cross Border Travel Registration for each person in the travelling party including all children. People will experience delays on arrival if they have not completed an application for each person.

If you have current approval to enter SA you do not need to reapply. Conditions of entry will be updated upon the processing of your arrival.

If you do not currently hold approval to SA or your recent application, made under different circumstances, has been declined please complete the Cross Border Travel Registration.
